Policy Statement

Instructors are required to develop a course syllabus for each offering of a course and communicate the syllabus to students unless the course is offered to an individual student (e.g. directed study, readings or research courses that require contracts between the student and instructor). For the purposes of this policy, a syllabus is a written or electronic document that contains information students need to know in order successfully to complete the work of the course.

Each syllabus includes two types of information. First is information specific to the course such as its title, goals, readings, assignments and instructor. Second is information informing students of University policies that may have an impact on their participation in the course. This information includes, for
A. Syllabus Requirements: Information Specific to the Course

The elements listed in this section of the policy are required. This information may also be distributed or provided by the department or college if done so routinely and explicitly. (For additional recommendations for good practice in teaching, see Administrative Policy: Teaching and Learning: Instructor and Unit Responsibilities: Twin Cities, Crookston, Morris, Rochester).

1. Catalog information including such as the course name, department, number, meeting time, meeting place, and credits.
2. Instructor’s name and contact information.
3. Course prerequisites if any exist.
4. Course goals and objectives. (For undergraduate courses on the Twin Cities campus, instructors are encouraged to identify learning and development outcomes addressed by the course. See Administrative Policy: Undergraduate Student Learning and Development Outcomes: Twin Cities, Crookston, Morris, Rochester).
5. Required and recommended materials and, if necessary, the location of materials. After the second week of the term, minor, but not major, changes in the assigned readings may be made (see Administrative Policy: Teaching and Learning: Instructor and Unit Responsibilities: Twin Cities, Crookston, Morris, Rochester).
6. General description of assignments, papers, projects, exams and other student work: with a schedule of approximate due dates and relative weight of each toward in the grade; and a description of how the overall course grade in the course will be determined (e.g., total points or percentage –% of points equivalent to a particular letter grade and whether a “curve” will be applied). Minor but not major changes may be made to assignments after the second week of the term.
7. Description of any course meetings that occur outside of the regularly scheduled class time (see Administrative Policy: Teaching and Learning: Instructor and Unit Responsibilities: Twin Cities, Crookston, Morris, Rochester).

8. Attendance requirements and penalties if any (see Administrative Policy: Enrolling in Overlapping or Back-to-back Classes: Twin Cities, Crookston, Morris, Rochester).

9. Statement on extra credit. If an instructor wishes to offer what is commonly known as extra credit opportunities for students in a class to allow them to improve their grade, those opportunities must be announced and made available to all students. (This provision does not address the option of increasing the number of credits a student may earn for the course.)

11. The date, time and place of the final examination if one is scheduled. Instructors who schedule final exams that are longer than two hours must provide alternative testing times for students who have other final exams scheduled during that time (see Administrative Policy: Scheduling Examinations, Final Examinations, and Study Days: Twin Cities, Crookston, Morris, Rochester).

B. Syllabus Requirements – Policy Statements

Instructors must have as part of the syllabus copies of, references to, or statements on, the following policies and resources and are encouraged to discuss elements of the policies particularly applicable to their course (see Appendix - Recommended Policy Statements for Syllabi):

5. Board of Regents Policy: Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Stalking and Relationship Violence

7. Board of Regents Policy: Disability Services

8. Statement about the availability of mental health and stress management services.

Instructors are encouraged to use the Appendix of Recommended Policy Statements. The Office of the Executive Vice President and Provost will prepare electronic copies of these policy statements for instructors to incorporate this information into syllabi. Instructors are encouraged to provide paper copies of these policies to classes with first-year students.

Exclusions

This policy is not applicable to the Duluth campus.

Reason for Policy
Students need a consistent level of basic information about the content and expectations for each course in which they are enrolled. This policy outlines the minimum components of a syllabus and notes recommended policy statements for inclusion, to ensure that instructors communicate course requirements to students in writing and in a timely manner. This policy implements criteria and requirements for accreditation established by the Higher Learning Commission.
